

July 27, 2025

Unifor members celebrate Pride in Halifax and St. John's; blocking of ITF inspectors raises concerns; the impact of tariffs on fisheries, gaming, and hospitality; celebrating the pension victories; jumping up at Junior Carnival in Toronto; Emancipation Day; Bell Clerical workers launch new campaign, and VIA Rail workers ratify new contract.

NextStar Energy workers ratified their first collective agreement that finalizes the

The deadline to order Unifor Labour Day t-shirts is July 25—order now!

unionization of 450 production and maintenance workers.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members brought their rainbows, their energy and their smiles to celebrate Pride in Halifax and St. John's last weekend.

READ MORE

Unifor is concerned about a recent increase in ITF inspectors being refused at ships in port in Halifax, Montreal and Vancouver.

READ MORE

Read Unifor's statement on the affects of economic uncertainty on cross-border travel and the hospitality, travel, tourism, and gaming industries.

READ MORE

Tariffs by China and tariff threats from the U.S. pose a genuine risk to the livelihoods of FFAW-Unifor members.

READ MORE

Members and their families in the St. John's, NL area are invited to join a Family Fun Day BBQ this coming Sunday!

READ MORE

The summer heat added to the lightheartedness and excitement of the Unifor is celebrating the union's significant pension victories for workers.

READ MORE

Unifor Carnival as it revved up celebrations for this year's Toronto Caribbean Carnival.

READ MORE

On Emancipation Day, Unifor recognizes that social change can't take place without collective action, backed by solidarity, unity and mobilization.

READ MORE

June's issue of Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's jobs market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at Bell Clerical launch bargaining campaign: Together We Stand

READ MORE

Unifor members at VIA Rail secure a new three-year deal with raises, better benefits, and stronger job protections.

READ MORE